BRASS BAND CONCERT

The 2nd Rossendale Scout Group Brass Band is the Band which has the honour of playing in Windsor Castle for the National Queen's Scout Parade on Sunday the 20th April 2008.

On the Saturday evening, 19th April at 7.30pm, South East Berkshire Fellowship have arranged for the Band to give a Concert performance in Windsor Parish Church (next to the Guildhall) in the High Street.

The Rossendale Band is probably the finest Scout Brass Band at the moment and has won competitions against famous Brass bands such as Grimethorpe Colliery and Brighouse and Rastrick Colliery Bands.

The music they will perform will include well known Brass band pieces such as Grandfather's Clock, Rule Britannia, Birdland, and some famous musical melodies such as "I Don't know how to Love Him".

They will also perform part of "The Great Adventure" symphony by Rodney Newton which was commissioned last year by the National Scout & Guide Symphony Orchestra and Rossendale to mark the Centenary of Scouting. There are many of Ralph Reader's Gang Show songs including a rousing arrangement of "Crest of a Wave".

A great evening can be assured with the usual South East Berkshire Fellowship hospitality. We hope you can join us.
